Financial Planning Program

The Power of Two

VT Financial Planning Program Scholarships

Financial Planning Alumni Scholarship

Awarded on the basis of a competitive essay describing a significant improvement in academic, professional, and/or personal commitment and achievement since enrolling in the Financial Planning Program. This scholarship was initially funded with the 2004 award from the Ameriprise Financial Planning Competition team and subsequently by donations from Financial Planning Program alumni.

Michael D. McCarthy, Daniel J. Mannen, Stuart E. Daniel, Steven R. Williamson, Hilda Meth

Ameriprise Financial Advisors Scholarship

Awarded on the basis of (1) academic achievement (minimum in-major Q.C.A. of 3.0) and (2) professional potential (work experience and leadership in university or community activities) to students enrolled in the Financial Planning Program.

Rebeka Ruth Becks Financial Planning Scholarship

Awarded on the basis of a competitive essay describing the role of financial planning in helping families with children to accomplish goals over the life cycle.

The Edmund W. Forcke, Jr.
Financial Planning Association (FPA) of Central Virginia Scholarship

Awarded based upon extracurricular leadership and community service with secondary emphasis on academic achievement. Applicants must be a student member of the Financial Planning Association (FPA).

1 Applicants must be enrolled in the Department of Agricultural & Applied Economics Financial Planning option or the Department of Finance CFP® Certification Education track to be eligible.